Pre-Occupational Therapy Program
PrOT

The five-day Pre-Occupational Therapy Program at KGI will provide participants interested in an occupational therapy career a chance to actively explore the profession through hands-on and interactive learning. Students will learn about the diverse scope of occupational therapy: what occupational therapists do, where they work, and populations they serve. Additionally, participants will learn about innovative and emerging occupational therapy practice areas that support health and well-being.

Who Should Apply
The program is designed for motivated undergraduate students or high school seniors interested in applying to occupational therapy programs in the future. Eligible applicants include: undergraduate college students (enrolled in community college or four-year institutions); students who have completed their undergraduate degree; or high school seniors.

Tuition and Scholarships
The tuition fee is $495. The program will include all classes, activities, lunch, and snacks for five days. Limited scholarships are available for students who need financial support to attend.
